

2023 Stone Scholarship for PPSCC Members

Eligibility

The program is available for paid PPSCC members with non-professional status (not yet won awards, not signature member of any art society, not yet won art awards and not represented by a gallery). The applicant must be able to demonstrate the potential to benefit from a workshop with an accomplished pastel instructor.

Award

The PPSCC Stone Scholarship would enable the award-winning recipients to participate in one workshop: either a Winter One-day Workshop (two will be awarded) or a two-day Masters Pastel Workshop (offered in the summer and the fall).

Application Process

- Complete the application form by following the directions on the next page.
- Provide 5 examples of artwork.
- Email completed application to stone.scholarship@ppsc.org by June 28, 2023. Please include the 5 jpgs of your work along with completed application form.

Recipients of the Workshop awards will be announced at For Pastels Only on July 8, 2023. For more information, please contact the Stone Scholarship Coordinator at stone.scholarship@ppsc.org.
